

Compliance Statements

To Chongqing Changan Automobile Co., Ltd.

We hereby provide the following representations and commitments regarding our company:

1. Financial Standing:

Our company is in sound financial condition and possesses the necessary resources and capabilities to properly execute this project.

2. Performance Capability:

Our company has extensive experience in the () sector. Relevant project experience includes, but is not limited to:

- ① .
- ② .
- ③ .

3. Compliance Commitments:

- ① We comply with all applicable anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws.
- ② We have never been subject to sanctions by any country or international organization, including but not limited to the United Nations, China, the United States, or the European Union.
- ③ We are not currently involved in any ongoing international or domestic litigation, arbitration, or other unresolved legal disputes that would materially affect our ability to perform this project.
- ④ We have not entered into any exclusive cooperation agreements within the automotive industry that would conflict with the execution of this project.
- ⑤ We will not engage in any form of unfair competition, including but not limited to participation under false representation or the improper use of personal or business relationships to influence the bidding process.
- ⑥ We strictly commit not to participate in bid rigging, collusive bidding, or any other anti-competitive practices.
- ⑦ We represent and warrant that all information submitted regarding our qualifications, past performance, and technical proposals is accurate, truthful, and complete. We will not attempt to secure the award through misrepresentation or fraudulent conduct.
- ⑧ We commit to performing the contract independently and will not engage in any illegal or non-compliant subcontracting or assignment without prior written authorization from the Client, in accordance with the contract terms or technical requirements.
- ⑨ In the event of any breach of the above commitments, we shall be responsible for any resulting losses and assume all corresponding liabilities.

In our business activities, we will maintain transparent communication and professional cooperation with your company to proactively manage potential risks and challenges. Should any risk arise, we commit to timely communication and collaborative resolutions to minimize potential impact on both parties.

Signature:

Date: 9/2/2026